THE HERALD.

J. S. F. BARRETT, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 3, 1877.

The moral and religious revival throughout the State at this time, are of a very remarkable character, in both increase of overwhelming numbers, and steadily increasing interest, truly partaking of an intelligent excitement, which promises substantial endurance and permanent good, temporally and spiritually.

We see the best, most substantial, talented, bright in the silver tide of youth—venerable in ripened age—fathers, sons, maids and matrons, moving in one serene column to the rescue of virtue—the claims of religion—the common good and order of society. This is truly refreshing, and a source of rejoicing to reflecting, considerate and good people everywhere, and much as other and more favored places are blessed with these genial showers and invigorating dews, the barren places are blooming as the rose, and the promise of better days is fast being realized. Here in our own midst sunshine is breaking on the pathway—the music of melody is in our hearts, and hope and faith are stretching out their hands to gather the rich clustering fruit. The religious meeting in progress here, is full of deep interest. Much good has already been the result and much in promise for the future. Several able, pious and devoted ministers are in attendance, and grave interest is manifested by large congregations that have for several weeks filled the church—verily it seems that we are on the eve of a spiritual visitation from on high that breaks in upon us like the millennial dawn.

After a long and fierce contest in the Senate over the credentials of Butler of South Carolina, and Kellogg of Louisiana, both have been admitted and were sworn in last Saturday morning. The admission of Kellogg is one of the longest strides the Radical wing of the Senate have ever taken. He was elected by the Packard Legislature that represented so small a minority of the people of Louisiana, that it did not stand a day after the support of the United States Army was withdrawn. It had less than a quorum and Kellogg's certificate of election was signed by Packard as Governor. Spafford was elected by a Legislature that had a legal quorum and was recognized by the masses of the people of the State as the true and legal Legislature and his credentials were recognized by Governor Nichols. The Nichols government and Legislature are recognized everywhere by everybody, as the lawful government of the State and Packard and his gang long since have given up all pretensions and yet this "rule or ruin" wing of the Senate have admitted Kellogg and kept Spafford out.

President Hayes, it is said, deprecates the admission of Kellogg. Eustis is still left out and there is no good reason or excuse why he should not have been admitted at once as he is lawfully entitled to represent Louisiana.

The Hickman Courier is one of our latest exchanges. It is a four paged nine column weekly, published at Hickman, Fulton county, Ky., and is issued every Friday. Subscription $2.00 per annum, Geo. Warren, editor. It is a valuable paper and ought to be, and is no doubt, well patronized at home.

Confirmation.

The nomination of Gen. John M. Harlan to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, was confirmed by the Senate last Thursday without a single objection.

On the same day the Senate confirmed the nomination of Wm. A. Stuart of Owensboro to be Collector of this, the Second Kentucky District.

Mississippi was held by bayonets and carpet-baggers for the Republicans a long time; but, when the people freed themselves of these incubus and held a fair and free election which they did recently, the Democrats elected 154 members to the Legislature while the Republicans elected 2.

Davis, Conover and Patterson—Dignity, indifference and venality.—Louisville Commercial.

We're been telling you all along that Patterson was venal and corrupt, but you thought him a very Saint until it happened to vote in favor of Gen. Butler's admission as Senator elect from South Carolina, who, unquestionably is entitled to his seat, then you give him the sweet name, "venality."

How to Kill a Town.

Here is the way in a nutshell, and we commend it to the attention of business men and everybody. Says an exchange: "Undertake every present and prospective enterprise; speak ill of the churches and schools; tell everybody the hotels are bad; enlarge the vice of the people, especially the young people; withhold the patronage from your merchants and landowners; and buy your goods and groceries somewhere else; never subscribe for the local paper, and if you are in business, refuse to advertise."

The Trigg County Democrat, Cadiz, Ky., has concluded to exchange with us. All right, and thank you, too.

We gladly welcome to our exchange list, the "Mayfield Monitor," a handsome, sprightly, little six column four page paper, edited by B. F. Briggs and published every Saturday, at one dollar per annum.

Communicator's Office, Hartford, November 24, 1877.

To the People of Ohio County: I will commence redistricting the county this week, commencing at Fordville precinct. There are a great many calls for me to begin at other points in the county, but I hope the people in other parts of the county will not become impatient. This is a work that cannot be done in a day, but I intend that it shall be done before the time to make another census report. My reason for beginning at Fordville precinct is that I believe that territory to be in a worse condition. I will work next in the territory of Ellis precinct.

MY REASON FOR REDISTRICTING. I will give the condition of the districts as my reason for redistricting. They are without any definite boundaries. There are districts from four to six miles square reporting from eighty to one hundred and sixty polls. Others are from 12 to 20 miles square, representing 20 to 40 polls; from this we see that some are much too small, and others are much too large. The small districts draw little money with a high to pay a teacher, and are too weak to build a suitable house. The result is that they have a bad house, a slow teacher and a weak school and compelled to pay nearly full in taxes; while in the large districts, they have good school houses, first-class teachers, profitable schools and free tuition. This is not right and should be remedied.

HOW IT SHOULD BE DONE. They should be made as near equal as possible—strong enough to enable the patrons to build a good house and to support a five months school every year; but not so large as to place any one at too great a distance from the school house. In redistricting, where there are good houses, the district should be cut to suit the house, but where the houses are different, the districts should be run off so as to make as many natural boundaries as possible, and thus build the house as near its center as possible.

WHAT WILL THEN BE DONE. I believe when our districts are fairly established and properly shaped, that the patrons of each district, where they have not already a good house, will erect a good and sufficient one. I believe that the patrons are only waiting for a chance. I believe that there will be forty new school houses built in the county within twelve months, and they are certainly needed. It is known that Ohio county is behind any other county in this part of the State in point of school houses.

Those who read "Mount Windy Items" will doubtless be surprised to learn that it is still my intention to redistrict. This article, though styled "Mt. Windy Items," was written in Hartford. I can not tell what the writer's ("W. H. C.") motive was, I only know that the proceedings of the court have been incorrectly reported. I might have answered it earlier and corrected any erroneous impression that may have been made to my disadvantage, thereby sooner convincing "W. H. C." of the injustice of his attack. He says that I boastfully asserted my authority to abolish both the schools and districts of the county. This I did not do. He says that "Sanford" read from the Statutes "That the Commissioner must redistrict, and that without money." This was not read from the Statutes then nor will it ever be. He says that they adjourned without making any appropriation, leaving his readers to infer that the appropriation was refused. This is another of his mistakes. The matter was deferred until the January Term. I did ask the court for assistance to do this work, because I do not think it right for me to do, for nothing, that which my predecessors had failed to do for pay. When the office was turned over to me, I found that out of one hundred and five districts in the county, I had the boundaries of only six in the office. This was perplexing to me. To run the office in that kind of loose way would certainly be worse than doing nothing. For me to undertake to do all this extra work for nothing, would also be hard. My salary is enough to pay for the regular duties of the office—and little enough, too, being much less than that of any other officer in the county.

I wrote to the State Superintendent for advice in the matter. He answered, "By all means give the court to make the necessary appropriation, and proceed at once to redistrict." It has been done in other counties, and the result has raised the standard of schools 75 per cent. I presented the matter to the court, and action was deferred until the January Term, which will be too late to do the work before the census must be taken for another school year. In conclusion, since the work must be done; since it is due to the interest of our schools, and due to the interest of education in this county, and I have promised to do my utmost for the advancement of the cause, I will do the work. Then, if the court says, next January, that I shall do it for nothing, it will already be done.

R. P. ROWE, C. C. C., Ohio County.

I regret to inform you of the death of Mr. James Smith, who lived near this place. He died yesterday, rather suddenly. He had just written his will, and it read over to him; got worse and died without signing it. He was a member of the church, a good Templar, a just, good citizen and a clever gentleman. He will be buried this evening at two o'clock by the order of Good Templars.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 5, 1877.

You Must Pay No 1

I have given my creditors ample time and again that I need give them the last notice, which they had better heed, or on either of the law will visit them. I mean what I say! All those who do not pay me before the 20th of December next, will have their accounts, notes, &c., sent on promptly that day. I am compelled to do this, and not wishing to run away to unnecessary cost, I give you this urgent notice. If it is any accommodation to sell to my creditors in thirty days, I will do so, but thirty days must be construed to mean thirty days and not three, six or twelve months. Respectfully,

Z. WAYNE GRIFFIN.

A Pardonable Pride.

Promptly made people to delay, by one laudable means that science affords, the evidences of physical decay. Who that is in perfect health would not match the bright eyes, the active mind, and other appearances of youthful vigor, with the insurance, the rich color, and beauty of youthful hair? Parker's Hair Balsam stands pre-eminent as an elegant hair dressing, and by its healthful action on the roots not only promotes a luxuriant growth of the young hair, but unfailingly restores gray or faded hair to the original youthful color, giving a soft, rich and lustrous appearance of great beauty. No other preparation so effectively removes dandruff or stops falling of the hair; its cooling and healing action entirely cures itching and humors of the scalp, and keeps the skin clean, white and healthy. It is perfectly harmless, exerts a quieting influence, and contains nothing that will soil the skin or gum the hair. It is not dye, and is unequalled for excellence and purity. Buy a bottle from your druggist, Z. Wayne Griffin, and test its merits.

When used for rheumatism, sore throat, lame back, neuralgia, sprains, bruises, cuts, contracted muscles, stiff joints, corns and burns, on human beings, and on sprain, ring bone, galls, cuts, scratches, etc., on animals, Coussens' Lightning Lincture is unequalled, and its effect simply electrical. As its name suggests, it is quick to relieve, and those who have been afflicted by its astounding virtues. For sale by J. W. Ford, Louisville.

Florida.

A throng of sufferers with coughs and colds, usually go South to enjoy the ethereal mildness of the land of flowers. To them we would say the necessity of that expensive trip is obviated by Coussens' Compound Honey of Tar, which speedily vanquishes the coughs and colds incident to the rigorous climate. For public speakers it surpasses the Demoscentic regimen of "pebbles and sea shore," clearing the throat until the voice rings with the silvery cadence of a bell. Use Coussens' Compound Honey of Tar. Price 50 cents a bottle. For sale by J. W. Ford, Louisville.

"German Syrup."

No other medicine in the world has ever given such a test of its curative qualities as Boscawen's German Syrup. In three years two million four hundred thousand small bottles of this medicine was distributed free of charge by druggists in this country to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Croup, Acute Coughs, Pneumonia and other diseases of the throat and lungs, giving the American people undeniable proof that German Syrup will cure them. The result has been that druggists in every town and village in the United States are recommending it to their customers. Go to your druggist and ask what they know about it. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case.

Lines.

Respectfully dedicated to Balam Saxe, of the Owensboro Messenger.

The summer is past and winter has come, and all have plenty for living. And among the blessings that come in its train, the chief of them all is Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving is one in a neighboring town. Who has been writing about it, the sinner. But then I will know the reason is this—He did not have turkey for dinner!

Now, Balam, old fellow, examine yourself, And see if you don't find some blessing. For which you can thank the Giver of All, And feel yourself best in possessing.

Thank God for your life and liberty, too; Thank him for friends and relations— Don't bother about the Remonstrance Bill, Leave to him the care of the nation.

Leave Congress alone to meddle; Don't disturb them with your praying, But trust in God to make it right, And help them by your praying.

He's careful for us when troubles were great, And our talk was not then about money, For war, bloody war, hung over us then, And our thoughts were agitated as hen.

Year we must betray you without any name, Though it seems so excellent Balam Saxe, For a man who can't find some cause to give thanks, Is nothing on earth but an Ass.

Missus.

The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for Consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr. Schenck's Almanac, which can be had of any druggist free of charge, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many, as these evidences will show; but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck provides for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. By the timely use of these medicines, according to directions, Dr. Schenck certifies that most any case of Consumption may be cured. Every moment of delay makes your cure more difficult, and all depends on the judicious choice of a remedy. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are an agreeable and safe cure for Constipation caused by biliousness, and also for all complexions and coated tongue. There is no better remedy for disordered stomach and all the evils resulting therefrom. Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.

Schenck's Medicine is for sale by all druggists.

I am now receiving and will have the largest stock of Christmas goods ever brought to this market.

E. T. WILLIAMS.

Our attention was called to the above slaughter during this cold weather, raised by Mr. Z. Wayne Griffin, some nine months old weighing 250 pounds, others at twelve months over 350 pounds. They were of the Chester and Berkshire mixed. With such evidence of the fattening qualities and quick growth of the finer breed of hogs, we are at a loss to account for the persistence of many people in stocking their farms with the old fashioned rosters, quill backs, gizzards, shag, long legged, long eared, lop eared and shaggy animals, taking two or three years to make them into tolerable sized and fat.

Mr. I. P. Bernad, Beaver Dam, bought a head last week, that weighed one hundred and twenty-one pounds. Mr. Hamilton Barnes was the owner of the beef.

Thanksgiving Present.

Most of our good housewives hereabouts presented their husbands with roast-turkey, pork and turnips, or some other good edible, for thanksgiving. But Mrs. H. D. Bennett and Mrs. Geo. Carson concluded that such a thing was too monotonous, and they would change the programme a little. Mrs. Bennett presented her liege lord a cow weighing 91 pounds and Mr. Carson presented her lord and master a daughter weighing 9 pounds. Cook and George no doubt enjoyed Thanksgiving and will remember it awhile.

New crop New Orleans Sugar and Molasses, at W. C. MORTON'S.

The Boundary of the New District.

Our issue next week will contain the report of the Commissioner's appointed to redistrict Ohio county into Magisterial Districts. The report was continued at County Court last Monday, until the first Monday in January, for exceptions. Every family in the county ought to have a copy of this report, and as we will issue a large number of extra papers next week, we will be able to supply all who may wish them at 5 cents per copy.

Grant bargain in Salt, at W. C. MORTON'S.

Thanksgiving day, though cold and gloomy, was very properly regarded by the citizens generally attending the doctrinal exercises at church, where an appropriate sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Davidson, in the morning, and services in the evening. The good things of life were doubtless enjoyed with good hearts, as they should be, and an acknowledgment made to the Giver of all good gifts.

Wanted to exchange good sewing machines for a good milk cow now giving milk, and good pork.

FARM FOR SALE.

I offer for sale my farm three miles north of Hartford, containing fifty-three and a half acres, thirty acres under fence. A good hewed log house, weather-boarded and celled, good barn, stables, crib, meat house, &c.; and good well in the yard, and a good young orchard. Price and terms fair and liberal. For further information, apply to J. P. Barrett, Herald Office, or to the undersigned on the premises. R. P. CRANFORD, 48St

Just received a fine line of new designs in prints of every kind and styles, at E. Small's.

Billy Barlow.

Some years back, there came from Butler county to the neighborhood of Cool Springs, Ohio county, a man by the name of Wm. C. Barlow, at least that is what he called himself, but whether he is the original Billy Barlow, we cannot say. He follows shoe making and mending, and seems to have learned his trade well, especially those two useful and necessary articles belonging to that business, viz: last and awl, for when he left, he got hold of all he could and took the very last thing he could get hold of, with him, and left after the sun, tired of his day's journey had sunk to rest behind the West—

We have a forked year of corn, among the curiosities brought in. It grew on the farm of Joseph T. Wallace. The rows of grain extend clear around each prong of the fork.

A domestic wife, curly headed children, and an easy fitting suit of clothes, are the greatest blessings on earth, the latter may be procured of Louisa Winter & Co., S. E. cor. 31 & Market streets, Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Ike Hartford, of the mammoth dry goods house of Bamberger, Bloom & Co., Louisville, Ky., spent several days in town during the past week. He is a number one salesman, and represents a good firm.

Business Men, Attention.

Our issue next week will be several hundred larger than it has ever been, and it is a good time for you to advertise. Tiet your advertisements ready by Monday next.

Why do you go shopping among the different Clothing houses in Louisville, when you can find the best and cheapest, and greatest variety, in fact all that the market affords at Julius Winter & Co., S. E. cor. 31 & Market streets, Louisville, Ky.

Taken up by A. S. Crow, living on the Falls of Rough and Knottville road, Ohio county, two miles east of Panther creek church, a two-year old steer, mostly red, with some white in forehead and on his withers, also on his belly and legs, marked with cross off the right and crop and under bit, in the left ear, appraised by the undersigned at fifteen dollars.

MARRIED.—At the church of the Assumption, Evansville, Indiana, Wednesday, November 28, 1877, Mr. Reuben P. Hughes to Miss Edie W. Rose. The bride is a daughter of Dr. W. B. Rose, formerly of Calhoun, Ky. We acknowledge invitation to be present.

Lyon House.

By invitation we took Thanksgiving dinner at this house. It is needless to say that dinner was superb. We enjoyed the good things very much and left extremely gratified, but on leaving we failed to express our much, for we were too full for utterance.

Judge R. S. Moseley returned home very recently from a trip South, in the interest of the Reader Coal Company.

Mr. Malcolm Hannaford, of Peoria Ill., has been in town some time, the guest of his uncle, Malcolm McIntire. We find him to be an agreeable, intelligent young man.

If you want a copy of the "Scientific American" or "New York Independent," either or both, for one year, at reduced rates, call at once. J. P. BARRETT.

Dr. G. E. Stowers and family, left for their home in South Carolina, last Monday, after a sojourn in our town, of nearly two months. The whole town will realize them, and especially will the inmates of the Hartford House miss their pleasant and agreeable company. The Doctor is one of the leading dentists of the Green river country. Our best wishes go with them.

We call attention to the advertisement in this issue, of "Hotel for rent." The hotel is a good one, and it is an excellent stand, one that has paid well in the past, and will, no doubt, pay better in the future, as the town is increasing in size and its interest.

French Chins Calico's, very nice and entirely new at E. Small's.

Dr. O. Stowers and family, left for their home in South Carolina, last Monday, after a sojourn in our town, of nearly two months. The whole town will realize them, and especially will the inmates of the Hartford House miss their pleasant and agreeable company. The Doctor is one of the leading dentists of the Green river country. Our best wishes go with them.

New crop of New Orleans Molasses, at E. T. WILLIAMS, at 75 cents per gallon.

Apologetic.

We have many valuable communications and items of news which we had to leave out, being short of help this week. We regret it, and promise our readers that it shall not occur again.

We had a call from Mr. Ellis Coleman, of South Carrollton, last Saturday. He reports the health of his father and brother improving.

Mr. Tillie E. Badger, wife of Bolling Badger, near Charleston, Mo., presented her husband with a pair of boys, on the 21st of November, 1877. They have been christened Earle and Claude. Two more nephews for us.

We have a forked year of corn, among the curiosities brought in. It grew on the farm of Joseph T. Wallace. The rows of grain extend clear around each prong of the fork.

A domestic wife, curly headed children, and an easy fitting suit of clothes, are the greatest blessings on earth, the latter may be procured of Louisa Winter & Co., S. E. cor. 31 & Market streets, Louisville, Ky.

$10 will get you 100 pounds of prime New Orleans Sugar, new crop, at E. T. WILLIAMS.

Mr. Ike Hartford, of the mammoth dry goods house of Bamberger, Bloom & Co., Louisville, Ky., spent several days in town during the past week. He is a number one salesman, and represents a good firm.

Business Men, Attention.

Our issue next week will be several hundred larger than it has ever been, and it is a good time for you to advertise. Tiet your advertisements ready by Monday next.

Why do you go shopping among the different Clothing houses in Louisville, when you can find the best and cheapest, and greatest variety, in fact all that the market affords at Julius Winter & Co., S. E. cor. 31 & Market streets, Louisville, Ky.

Taken up by A. S. Crow, living on the Falls of Rough and Knottville road, Ohio county, two miles east of Panther creek church, a two-year old steer, mostly red, with some white in forehead and on his withers, also on his belly and legs, marked with cross off the right and crop and under bit, in the left ear, appraised by the undersigned at fifteen dollars.

This Nov. 1st, 1877.

J. MILLER, J. P. O. C.

MARRIED.—At the church of the Assumption, Evansville, Indiana, Wednesday, November 28, 1877, Mr. Reuben P. Hughes to Miss Edie W. Rose. The bride is a daughter of Dr. W. B. Rose, formerly of Calhoun, Ky. We acknowledge invitation to be present.

Lyon House.

By invitation we took Thanksgiving dinner at this house. It is needless to say that dinner was superb. We enjoyed the good things very much and left extremely gratified, but on leaving we failed to express our much, for we were too full for utterance.

Judge R. S. Moseley returned home very recently from a trip South, in the interest of the Reader Coal Company.

Mr. Malcolm Hannaford, of Peoria Ill., has been in town some time, the guest of his uncle, Malcolm McIntire. We find him to be an agreeable, intelligent young man.

If you want a copy of the "Scientific American" or "New York Independent," either or both, for one year, at reduced rates, call at once. J. P. BARRETT.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

For the purpose of Family Pills, and for curing Constipation, Jaundice, Headache, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and for Purifying the Blood.

Are the most effective and economical purgative ever discovered. They are mild, but effective in their operation, moving the bowels surely and without pain. Although gentle in their operation, they are still the most thorough and powerful of cathartics.

AVER'S PILLS have been known for more than a quarter of a century, and have obtained a world-wide reputation for their efficacy. They correct diseased action in the several assimilative organs of the body, and are so composed that obstructions within their range can rarely without stand or evade them. Not only do they cure the everyday complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, the safest and best physic for children. By their aperient action they grip much less than the common purgatives, and never give pain when the bowels are not inflamed. They reach the fountains of bile, and strengthen the system by freeing it from the elements of weakness.

Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, these PILLS may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them from fresh, and makes them pleasant to take; while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., Practical and Analytical Chemists. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE. J. W. FORD, agent, Hartford, Ky.
